Worried feet cause half the trouble and discomfort that harass the men and women of our age.

The Scholl "Foot-Easer"

is a remedy. It is a scientific arch support that supports the muscles and tendons and gives them strength to carry the weight of the body at the foot arch.

It does away with all nervous and muscular strain and quickly replaces the natural ease and comfort of the foot and prevents flat-foot with its painful consequences.

Makes walking or standing absolutely comfortable, keeps shoes in shape and gives the legs restful arch.

The Scholl "Foot-Easer" is made of two German Silver Springs, leather, a covered, and is springy, flexible and self-adjusting to all feet and can be easily slipped on any shoe.

They do not need laces or straps but are easily changed
from one pair to another.
If you have any foot trouble whatsoever the Scholl "Foot-Easer" will give you instant relief —will rest and comfort.

All sizes for men and women, $1.50 per pair.

We are headquarters for foot comfort and the Scholl "Foot-Easer" is one of the principal means of conveying it to you. Let us prove it.

XMAS MASSES AT ST. MARY'S TODAY

A musical program of unusual beauty will be given at St. Mary's Catholic church at 10:15 o'clock this morning when the Christmas high mass will be celebrated there. This program will also have been given at the high mass at 5:30 o'clock, when, however, it will have been accompanied by a tableau, "The Adoration of the Shepherds," given by members of the Junior and senior classes of St. Mary's high school.

The program, which will be under the direction of J. J. Fleckenstein, organist and choirmaster of St. Mary's church, follows:

Processional, "Silent Night," soprano and alto voices of the boys' choir.

"Kyrie Eleison," from Fr. Witt's "Missa Exultet," male chorus.

"Gloria," from the same, male chorus.

"Aredo," from the same, male chorus.

Offertory, "Adeste Fideles," by V. Novelli.

Soprano solo, boys' choir.

Duet, E. A. Harrington, bass, and Dennis Gleason, tenor.

Trio, E. A. Harrington, bass, Dennis Gleason, tenor, and boys' choir.

Chorus, by the men and boys' choir.

"Sanctus," from the "Missa Exultet."

Benediction, from the same.

"Agnus Dei," from the same.

Postlude, "War March of the Priests," Felix Mendelssohn.

The boys' choir will include 45 voices, which have been in training for this Christmas service for more than six weeks under the direction of Organist Fleckenstein. The men's choir consists of 15 voices, divided as follows:

Tenors: Mr. Becker, George Cross, Dennis Gleason, Robert Geenen, W. H. Broadbent, V. Steingard, Charles Forbs, Paul Pieri and J. F. McGinnis; Basses: E. A. Harrington, E. C. Stultz, Thomas Lynch, Arthur Flynn, Albert W. Schimberg, Vernon Kersting and George Weisel.

Banjos, which originated in India, came to America before being introduced in England.

Dr. W. A. Baker, dentist, is now located at 15 East Monroe street, Phone 4415—Adv.

SING 'MESSIAH' AT CATHEDRAL TONIGHT

"The Messiah," Handel's famous and beautiful oratorio, will be sung by the choir of Trinity cathedral at 8 o'clock this evening under the direction of Arthur J. Smith, the cathedral's organist and choirmaster.

The solo parts of the oratorio will be sung by the cathedral soloists, Miss Lotta Fahlen, soprano; Mrs. Raymond W. Battin, contralto; Howard F. Ewing, tenor, and T. E. Pearson, bass.

The rendering of "The Messiah" at Christmas time by choral and church societies has become a custom throughout the English-speaking world, and although 120 years have elapsed since Handel wrote his immortal work, it has lost none of its popularity. The oratorio is famous for the great beauty and grandeur of the music as well as for its religious significance.

The public is invited to the rendition of the oratorio at the cathedral this evening.

There are 18,000 millionaires, or men with millionaire incomes, in the United States.
